Our church is committed to making all activities as open and accessible to all

I'm not sure how courageous I have been in my life. When I stop and think about it, not as much as I'd like. I don't really want to get to the end of my life and think I wish I'd had more courage. So, as I think about the next few weeks, I am going to need to show some courage and I want to show some. It's strange how the thought of inviting someone to church feels like I need courage for it, but even for me I do, as I don't do it enough.

In Joshua chapter 1 and v9 Joshua says to the Israelites, "Be strong and courageous for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go." That's the promise to us that whatever we're doing, wherever we go, we can show courage, as God will always be with us. So as we pray about who we can invite to church and realise the worst that can happen is they don't, so we can have courage because the God of the universe is with us. Join me in inviting someone to church on the 15th of November. In the hands of God, who knows what could happen??

Have a blessed week,

Tim
