This Sunday we celebrate the last Sunday before Advent, that time of preparation in the run up to Christmas. It is also known as the feast of Christ the King, a Sunday when we are reminded that Christ is the King of us all and of all things.

Others know this Sunday as 'Stir Up Sunday', the day when Christmas puddings are stirred and put away ready for Christmas. A period during which they are regularly 'fed' in preparation. So how do we feed ourselves in this forthcoming period of preparation?

Perhaps we need to take some time to re-access what we are doing and to prioritise the things that are really important. It does seem that we have all suddenly got very busy again!

Our reading from 1 Samuel this week is a reminder that we must really listen to God and do what he asks of us, even when what he is asking does not seem the most obvious thing to do.

It may be that if we do properly listen, taking the time to do so, we may be better able to prioritise our lives and find the time to do what God is asking of each and every one of us. God will stir us up and He will also feed us if we allow Him to do so.

Have a great week,

Irene
